

Ralph Daniel Davis

July 1, 1929 - February 23, 2013

Ralph Daniel Davis, 83, of Bald Knob, died Saturday, February 23, 2013 at White County Medical Center in Searcy. He was born July 1, 1929 in Heber Springs to the late John Tanner Davis and Elsie Hon Davis. He was a member of the Oakland Freewill Baptist Church and served in the Army. Mr. Davis loved hunting, fishing, and painting. He especially enjoyed working in his garden. His flowers were exceptionally beautiful because of his "green thumb".

He is survived by his son, Danny Davis; one grandson, John Howell; a niece, Darla Brown and her husband Lloyd; a nephew, Warren Dale Vinson and his wife Mary; a great-niece Megan Graham; two great-nephews, Slade Tanner Montgomery and Brandon Vinson; a sister-in-law, Nelda Jean Davis.

He is preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Aline Davis; one sister, Winsel Vinson and one brother, J.W. Davis.

Visitation will be Monday from 5-7 p.m. Services will be conducted Tuesday, 2:00 p.m., Powell Funeral Home Chapel in Bald Knob. Interment will follow in Fredonia Cemetery by Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

“ *To the Davis Family:
Your Dad was such a special and caring man. He was a true inspiration to our son, Jordan, when he was playing basketball at BK. Mr. Davis loved people and watching the young people play sports. He will be terribly missed.*
