“ Randy, I am sure gonna miss you working on my computer & calling me from time to time just to chat, and facebook. I know ALL of your family is missing you. Rest in peace my dear friend. You told me you were beating this cancer so I didn't bother to ask who would work on my computer & put up with me if you passed. That never crossed my mind that you would cross over. I will miss your smile also.

See you later,

Carolyn
