“ Randy, you were a dear friend that I shared most of all my best childhood memories with; sneaking away swimming at the Bald Knob Quarry everyday after and during school, riding motorcycles on the farm, the Dodge, too many to mention. You will be deeply missed. Our love and prayers to Jerry, Paul, Paula, Collin, Madison, his fiance, and your whole family. May GOD hold and strengthen you all at this time of need and he will! I am so sorry to all of you and your loss and will keep you all in our prayers. Randy was the best friend a country boy could have had. The times that we shared & the memories I hold from nursery school in church through adulthood can & will never be forgotten or replaced. Randy, you will be missed but always loved. May GOD be with you all!

“ We didnt know Randy personally, But from what i had heard from Lisa, He was an amazing man, very loving, kind and just simply a great person.

Such a tragic loss. There are no words to express our deepest sympathies for your loss. as we all know only the Lord knows why, but seems way to short a life. He will continue to live thru Lisa's Memories, as well as his entire family. I wish we could be there to offer confort, unfortunately we are unable to.

Lisa, We love you, and we are sorry beyond measure.
