

Randy Ferrell Brame

January 25, 1956 - November 4, 2014

Randy Ferrell Brame, 58, of Tellico Plains, TN passed away on Tuesday November 4, 2014. He was born in South Boston, VA on January 25, 1956 to the late Bud and Louise Brame. Randy was affectionately known as "Peabody" to his many friends in South Boston. Randy had been a resident of Tellico Plains for the past 15 years. He served his country faithfully for 23 years in the United States Navy; he was extremely nice and caring and his friends said of him, "You couldn't meet a nicer person." Above all things, he was a wonderful husband, a great father, caring brother and true friend. In addition to his mother and father, he is preceded in death by one son, Scott; one brother Mike; and one sister Marcia.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his wife of fifteen years, Carrie Brame; two sons: Jason and Randy; two daughters: Amy and Melissa; one brother Ken Brame and wife Kim; and two grandchildren: Blake and Chloe.

Memorial Service was held in Tellico Plains, TN.

Memorials honoring Randy may be sent in care of Carrie Brame, 191 Croft Road,

Tellico Plains, TN 37385

“ Heather and I knew Randy the entire time he lived in TN. There was nothing he couldn't fix or wouldn't do to help.

We will miss him.

“ Randy was the last of my immediate family, having lost my mom & dad, Mike AND Marcia. You were always there to help, lend support and be the best big brother ever. As you always have been, be patient as I WILL see you all again. There isn't a person he had contact with that will remember his as a kind & decent man.
