

Raymond Scott "Biggun" Torres

June 14, 1979 - December 19, 2018

Raymond Scott "Biggun" Torres, 39, of Judsonia, died Wednesday, December 19, 2018. He was born June 14, 1979 in Marianna to Raymond and Brenda (Mallard) Torres. Biggun enjoyed pit bulls, riding 4-wheelers, music and cooking, but he especially enjoyed eating. He and his brother always had a good time riding bikes as children and they were always pulling pranks. Smelling good with his cologne and wearing bling was always a must for biggun. There was a special bond between his nieces and him; he always made time for them and they watched many "girly" movies together. Even though he had been paralyzed for 15 years due to an accident he was always smiling and always had a kind word for those around him.

He is survived by his parents, Raymond and Brenda Torres; brother, Christopher Torres; sisters, Amanda and Brandi Torres; much loved nieces, Kristen, Ariel, Jazzmine, Izzie the "gimp", and Alexandria; many aunts and uncles, special to heart aunts, Vickie, Bonnie, Shelia, Wilma, Robin, Jonah, Mary and Janie; and momma Marty and brother Jason Harcourt.

He is preceded in death by his Torres and Mallard grandparents, several aunts and 2 uncles.

Visitation will be Sunday from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Services will be conducted 2:00 p.m., Monday, Dec. 24 at the Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob.

Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

“Wow. Unbelievable that you're gone, Biggun, but God called you home and now you are free of your pain and your wheelchair! What a glorious sight! You and Jason, regardless of what y'all were doing, were always laughing! And I'll never forget how you always made Alexa Harcourt laugh when she was just a baby♥RIP MY FRIEND
