“ Reba was not only my brother in laws sister but she was my friend. My heart is saddened to learn of her passing. To Brian, Travis and Derrick I am sure you know you had a very special mother...she was so proud of each one of you. The last time I saw her was a Who Dat's, we laughed and had great conversation..I am thankful for the memories. God Bless you all.

“ I was a teenager when Reba Jean was born and I got to see her as a small child when we went to visit Grandma & Grandpa Guthrie in Denmark. Her mother and father were really close to me and I loved to go there to eat with them and visit. It was great to have known them.

We know that Reba Jean will be missed. It is always sad when someone younger passes away and we try to understand why God does these things to us. Maybe God has something Special for her in Heaven.

We are praying for all of the Family and close Friends to try and understand.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Reba's passing, but could not bring myself to attend her funeral; rather, I wanted to remember her as she had been, full of life and smiles. My sympathies and condolences to Danny and the kids. She was one of my favorite people to work the polls with and I will truly miss her.
