“ When I was about 12 or 13, Becca's grandma, Ms. Effie Chapman would watch me after school until my mom could come pick me up. Becca would come in and out after school and I got to hang out with her several times watching movies and talking. I have always had the highest respect for her and she was a great person and friend to all. She will be greatly missed!

“ I did not know Rebecca well because she was so much younger than me, but she was a part of my earthly family. Now she has gone to live with her father and other members of her heavenly family. My thoughts and prayers are with Norma Jean and her family. I know you will miss her.

“ I know your loved one will be missed. Now, memories become priceless. Be assured that you will see her again one day. May God comfort you with peace and strength during this time. May the following add some comfort. It is by the great poet John Donne:

Death Be Not Proud

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee

Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so;

For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow

Die not, poor death, nor yet canst thou kill me.

From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,

Much pleasure; then from thee much more must flow,

And soonest our best men with thee do go,

Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.

Thou art slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,

And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell,

And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well

And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?

One short sleep past, we wake eternally,

And death shall be no more, death, thou shalt die.

“ Annette,

So sorry to hear about your sister, think it was the hardest thing I ever had to go through when my baby sister passed away 3 years ago. So I really do know how you are feeling. Just remember the good times. God is in control and has a plan.

Lewis and I will be keeping you and your family in our prayers.

Love ya,

Kathy

“ Norma, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Rebecca. She was such a sweet girl. It seems like just yesterday that we were all going to Church together, and they were all sitting on the backbench talking and causing us such trouble!!! Where does time go. I am praying for you and the family. May you all find Peace in Him. Always, Trudy Langlely
