“ Rebecca was one of the nicest people I have ever met, she truly made me feel loved as her friend and her laugh was infectious. I remember when we had just got off working a 16 hour shift and I was having issues with my ex and she looked at me and said “eli, leave that freaking dude... he is a piece of junk... *haha* *haha*” she always knew how to make me laugh and make me feel better. RIP hunny, i’m gonna pray for your kids and family, love you ❤️💕🙏😭😭🕊️

“ Rebecca and I use to work together. She always had a big smile and sweet words. She was truly a gift to anyone she came in contact with. She was a very special person. I will never forget you Becca! And your family will forever be in my prayers.

“ In this time it's so hard to say goodbye so I'm just gonna say see ya later friend.. I don't know why God took you so soon when so many lives depend on you.. he must have a big plan in mind.. I know many of us have lost contact over the years but we all still remained friends. Life always gets busy aND none of us talked as much as we should but we all have away of staying in contact in some way.. I pray for the kids as life goes on in times they are gonna need their mother that God is with them all the way and puts people in their life as they walk through their life.. becca you were loved by many... you wasn't just a coworker we were all family and family is always there when we get called... love ya girl!!

“ Me and rebecca used to hang out quite often. I have nothing but good memories. Especially at club latino on Saturday nights way back in the day. Girl u will be dearly missed. It's such a tragedy. But as we all know God had this in his plan we may not understand they why but it is in his plan. May God be with her kids as they go thru this time in their life.
