

Richard "Ricky" Hastings

July 6, 1955 - December 10, 2020

Richard (Ricky) Duane Hastings (65) went home to be with his Lord and Savior Thursday, December 10, 2020. Ricky was born July 6, 1955 in Searcy Arkansas. Ricky was a faithful member of Midway Baptist Church where he served as a beloved Sunday school teacher. He was hardworking, spending most of his adult years as a Local 798 Union Pipeline Journeyman. Most notably, Ricky was a loving husband, father and Papa. Never failing to love, lead, care and pray for his family; He lived out a true Christian testimony and left behind a Godly heritage. Ricky was preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Hilda Hastings; brother, Robbie Hastings and daughter, Bridget Langley.

He is survived by his loving wife of 47 years Mandy Hastings; brother, Rodger Hastings (Anita); sister, Debbie Hastings; grandchildren, Destiny Garrison (Ethan), Brady Johnson, Kassidy Meachum (Colton) and two great grandsons, Thatcher and Ridge Garrison, as well as nieces, nephews and many beloved friends.

Graveside services will be held 2:00 p.m., Saturday, December 19, 2020 at the Providence Cemetery in Judsonia. Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net

Rick Hasting was our beloved friend. He was and outstanding Christian. Myself and Bobby will really miss him he would come over and we would sit and talk about our savior and soon coming King. oh how we miss him. He was always ready to pray and teach and share what God has done for us

I miss his smile. His laughter. He love all his friends he would give you anything. He was a Godly man.

He love his wife with all his heart and his dog was his buddy he would go anywhere with Rick all our love Bobby and Phyllis 🙏💙🙏
