

Richard Bruce Langwell

December 12, 1951 - September 6, 2024

Richard Bruce Langwell (aka: Pocket), 72 of Newark, Arkansas, passed away on Friday, September 6, 2024, in Jonesboro, Arkansas. He was born in Coalinga, California on December 12, 1951, to the late Tracy Langwell and Gerlean (Roberts) Langwell.

He worked as a compressor mechanic in the oil fields for many years. Some of the things he enjoyed were working on and racing cars. He was a big nascar racing fan. If he could take it apart he would just to see how it worked and put it back together. In his younger years he was a drummer and loved music. Richard also enjoyed watching wrestling, the ocean and watching youtube videos. He loved his girls and helping them. His favorite thing to say was “a double cheeseburger with mustard, pickle and a Pepsi”, which the girls always picked up for him when going to town.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents.

Arrangements were entrusted to Powell Funeral Home of Bradford.
