“ To my favorite uncle , you were the most talented guy I know. Everyone was your girlfriend, you played guitar, sang and your laugh was the best giggle around. When you learned that I spoke another language (spanish) you went around telling everyone how I spoke spinach. You loved action movies and when it come to animals I could describe it and you would go straight to your encyclopedia set and turn to the exact page of what I was talking about. Super smart and so loving the best uncle a girl could ask for. You had the kindest heart and could make a friend anywhere. You may have loved superheroes but you were mine. Love Always and will truly miss you. Grandmas arms are waiting for you again. Love Always your niece Lori
