

Robert "Bob" Earle Walters

April 10, 1937 - June 25, 2013

Robert "Bob" Earle Walters died on Tuesday, June 25th, 2013. Bob had retired from a career in radio broadcasting and had been a member of both the First Methodist Church and the First Presbyterian Church in Searcy, Arkansas. He enjoyed making and listening to gospel music and had been a vocalist in a number of gospel music groups throughout his life. Above all, he was a devoted husband to his wife Joann; their marriage lasted for over 52 years until her death in 2011.

He is survived by his step-father, Hanno Ruedt von Collenberg, two daughters, Jana Shannon (m. Cliff) and Melanie Harmon, and five grandchildren: Jennifer Morris (m. Jesse), Minda Powell (m. David), Matthew Shoaf (m. Katie), Rachel Shoaf (m. Byron Smith), and Aaron Huffaker. He is also survived by eight great-grandchildren.

Bob was preceded in death by his loving wife, Joann Ladd Walters and their daughter, Claire Huffaker.

Visitation will be held on Monday, July 1st, 2013 from 8:00 – 10:00 a.m. at Powell Funeral Home in Bald Knob. A graveside service will immediately follow at Shady Grove Cemetery Memorial Pavilion.

Arrangements entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia.www.powellfuneralhome.net

Tribute Wall

DH

“ I became acquainted with Bob several years when he was a member of the Venable Quartet, and was also a broadcaster in Little Rock, AR. Some years later Bob and I worked together at a radio station in Searcy, AR. He was a pleasant person to be around, and was a very talented person. I am saddened to read of his passing. My thoughts are with his family during this time of grief.

Del Hughes - February 10, 2016 at 03:22 PM