

Robert "Bob" Hiler

June 1, 1932 - January 28, 2013

Robert Leason Hiler, 80, of Bald Knob, died Monday, January 28, 2013 at his home. He was born June 1, 1932 in Russell a son of the late John and Ethel Coil Hiler. Mr. Hiler was a proud U.S. Army veteran and was a retired plant engineer with RCA. He attended the Russell Missionary Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife, Betty Hiler; children, Larry Usrey (Judy) of Bald Knob and Tangela Smith (Tim) of Indiana; sister, Lucille Lampton of North Little Rock; 5 grandchildren, Ziba Lawrence, Stephanie Muckelberg, Travis and Chelstie Smith and Timothy George; 9 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by 2 brothers, John and Leon Hiler.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Sharon sure did Love her Uncle Bob. Tange you should know that I do think of you and Tim often and that I Love you guys very much. You all are on my mind and in my prayers at this time of your great loss and Always. I LOVE YOU, Johnny Morgan

---

John Morgan - May 04, 2016 at 05:52 PM

JM

“ Sharon sure did Love her Uncle Bob. Tange you should know that I do think of you and Tim often and that I Love you guys very much. You all are on my mind and in my prayers at this time of your great loss and Always. I LOVE YOU, Johnny Morgan

---

John Morgan - February 10, 2016 at 03:45 PM