“ I got to know Mr. Overstreet while working at the hospital in Farmville. He had become my "adopted" dad since my father's passing last year. I would always give him a hug and we talked about my mules. I will surely miss him.

“ Hey Bob, It was a great honor to know you while you were here on earth, you will be missed. How about you and Eleanor picking us out some good seats at the local track and put down the cushions and a bunch of us will be joining you soon...

Thank You.....
