“ *My dear sweet cousin, I can't believe you're gone. Always a smile on your face. You are loved by so many. Anyone who knew or met you couldn't help but like you. You will be dearly missed. I treasure the time we all spent in Cincinnati that mothers day weekend. It was a last minute trip for me, I'm so glad I jumped in the car and headed down to watch you guys play.
we see each other again someday...*

“ My deepest and most sincere sympathy to the entire Stough family. When we were kids, the Stoughs lived two doors down from us on Homecomer in Grove City, and they were always such a nice family. May your loving and happy memories help you get through the coming days, weeks and months. My condolences ~ Vicki Hampton
