“ Mary Lynn and family
Rommie was a blessing. He always had a story to tell and thought to tell. He had an uncanny gift for showing up at the office unannounced when I was the most pre occupied. Yet with his wit and sheer persistence he always carried the day.
The last time we visited was Saturday before my last Sunday. He was in the hospital. He had just received a very hard diagnosis from the doc. We spoke of things eternal. He was at peace. He blessed me again.
We will miss him.
Our prayers for you attend this note.

“ It has been a long time since I heard Rommie`s name. I grew up just "down the street" from Rommie Carroll. My brother Leon " (Bob" now) and I were just a bit younger than Rommie. I have a favorite memory of Rommie , I think he worked for either the highway dept. of Cand L Electric at the time . I was standing on my porch on Wiley Street in Star City (before 1957 , when I moved to Rison area) and I looked up and saw Rommie coming down the street with a "Huge" timber rattle snake carrying it draped over his shoulder , and carrying the head with wire wrapped around it in his left hand. That memory has remained with me all my life and I have told that vivid story many , many times. I do not even remember being able to ask him where he got it - I was so spellbound at the time. I wish our paths had crossed in the years since , because I too am involved in the United Methodist Church. I have been a Lay Speaker for many years and am now the Arkansas Conference Lay Servant Ministries Director. I am sure we have been very close at times each year at Annual Conference. I always knew Rommie (and the family) to be good neighbors and friends and I am sure he will be greatly missed!

He made you feel good to be in his presence. He will make Heaven a fun place with his laughter and humor. May the Lord bless his family and friends who knew this fine man of God.*
