

Roy "Don" Donald Barnhouse

April 19, 1954 - July 30, 2025

Roy "Don" Donald Barnhouse, 71, of Pleasant Plains, Arkansas, passed away peacefully at home on July 30, 2025. Don was born on April 19, 1954, in Jefferson City, Missouri, to the late Roy Alton Barnhouse and Peggie Louise (Hains) Barnhouse.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Janice Barnhouse; their four children, Donna Brewer (Jay), Roy David Barnhouse, Amy Lu-Ann Reasons, and Anthony Barnhouse; and his grandchildren, Lilly, Lindsey, and Lea Brewer, Paige, Anthony, Susen, and Robert Barnhouse, Elijah and Johnathon Reasons.

He is also survived by three siblings, Deborah Barnhouse, Gary Barnhouse, and Robert Barnhouse, along with numerous nieces, nephews, and cherished friends.

Don was preceded in death by his parents; his grandson, Race Barnhouse; and siblings, David Barnhouse, Kathy Corter, and Vickie Garris.

A proud and devoted family man, Don was known for his deep love, steady presence, and the values he passed on to his children and grandchildren. He was an excellent father and a guiding hand to many.

They called him the "Mighty Hunter," Don hunted not for sport, but to feed and provide for his family, a skill he passed on to his kids and grandkids. He also had a passion for fishing and found joy in teaching the younger generations how to hunt and fish. His happiest moments were often spent outdoors or riding four-wheelers with his grandchildren.

Don's strength, kindness, and love of family will be forever remembered and deeply missed.

Committal will take place at Putnam Cemetery in Pleasant Plains at 2pm on Monday, August 11, 2025.

Arrangements were entrusted to Powell Funeral Home of Bradford.

“ I was the youngest of twins, last sibling. I was a few years away from even starting school, and I distinctly remember my brother Don, daily bringing in fresh game, harvested humanely, to feed his 6 brothers, sisters and to help feed our entire family.
