“ Marcie was a classmate through our entire school experience. She is an icon in our class. She planned wonderful reunions and often did the floral arrangements as she was so talented artistically. I remember her lovely voice as a fellow choir member-mr davis found her to be one of his favorites. She could weave the diverse personalities with her wit and smile. We all called her friend. She had a positive energy that filled a room and sparkled in her eyes. She loved big; she lived fully as long as her health allowed. Through our boys we became friends as adults- she found so much joy in the bond of Brad and Stuart that she made my son hers by heart choice. A gift that sustained me in my own loss. She was beautiful to view, beautiful to know. The earth has lost some of its sheen.

“ Marcie was larger than life. It seemed to me that she could overcome anything. Growing up our families would visit. Being with Marcie and Anita was fun. I am so thankful she has no more pain, no more sorrow, no more tears in heaven.

“ I loved Marcie all her life. We shared some wonderful family. She was fun and I loved being around her. As we got older we didn't see each other but I am looking forward to being with her in Heaven. I know she's enjoying being with her dad and all of our family that has gone on. You will always be in my heart.

“ Marcy will be terribly missed. We spoke on the phone a couple times a year and she would catch me up on the goings on in Velvet Ridge. She'd always end our conversation with "love ya kiddo".
