“ I have fond memories of both Faye and Sam from when my husband, Jim Rowles, was pastor of Beth Car. Not long ago I had a nice visit on the phone with Sam because he was on my deacon list. I am so glad we got to talk then. You were blessed.

“ Elizabeth and family,
I was so surprised to learn of your Dad's passing. I'll miss seeing him when I go to the Woodview to visit my Mom. It was always nice to see his familiar face. I'll keep you in my prayers.

“ Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with the family. I have not spent very much time in the county for years, but whenever I would pass the Exxon station I would think of Sam and Cleve and the type of business they did. Always honest and sincere and Sam would go out of his way to help anyone. Thru Sam Osborne's everyday actions his memory will live on.

“ May he rest in peace. He was a nice man. I have lived out of Halifax County for over 50 years and he still remembered my name. I'm sure you have wonderful memories.
