“ I am so sorry for your loss. Scott was and is a very special friend. He was loved by lots of people. He had a big part in my recovery and was loved for it. He was also my spiritual advisor. If i had a problem he always had ears to listen with. I know he is in heaven singing and shouting for joy. I think that is one thing that keeps me going. My prayers are with you all.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Scott was a wonderful person. He touched many lives including ours. He was a true man a God and very proud of it. I'm sure that smile of his is bigger than ever, knowing he is standing with his lord and savior in heaven. We are also sure that his beautiful voice is singing out, echoing across the heavens. It may be a loss for us here on earth, but he has gained so much walking through those pearly gates! If there is anything we can do to help, please let us know!
Sincerely,
The Langley Family
