“ I will remember his gentle, patience, and non judging spirit. He was truly one of the greatest mentors to walk this planet. I have been touched and forever changed after spending time with him and his sweet wife in Montreal during the mid 70's.

“ Rick and Kathy, David and I were saddened to learn of your loss. We both have lost parents and realize how difficult this time is. We have lost contact with everyone from our college days. We would love to hear from you.

“ This is for Fannie who was my "packing partner" on one of our chorus trips. I'm so sorry for your loss. Would like to know where you are living now & how many children/grandchildren & if you work what is your occupation.

“ Rick,

I'm surely sorry about your Dad. My prayers are with you. We miss you here. Hope you move back at some point. You can put together another singing group. I'll help you. Tell Jo Ann hello!

“ i work at byrd haven and got the blessing of getting to know mr timmerman. he was a sweet man. one day on my way out from helping him to bed he was sitting on the side of his bed reading the bible with mrs. timmerman i just smiled so big when i left the room. that is a dedicated man even in his illness and weakness he praised the Lord he could have easily been mad at God for his illness but he didnt i think of his illness as a way of ministering he showed me how great his life was till the very end now im closer to God because of him just showing me how to live life even when i get to an older age. his funeral was so touching sitting in college church i could feel him around us smiling because he is with God now. even in his caskett you could tell he was with God he will be missed so much by me and many others i just wish i could have told him thank you for being an inspiration to me.

“ *Mrs. Timmerman & Family,
Wayne joins me in sending our heartfelt condolences to your family in the passing of Brother Timmerman. You two were so special to Melba (Murray) as you went about doing your ministry of visitation to many of your friends. She loved Harding Place and it was hard for her to go to the nursing home but your visits made it easier for her. This earth is a much better place because of both of you. We pray that God will bless you in this time of sorrow.
Loving regards,
Robbye & Wayne Ridout*

“ *To all of Brother Timmerman's family, my heart goes out to you. He was so special to me, as you all are--my second parents and family. I'm so glad I got to visit with him on my way to Louisiana recently. I'll treasure our times together in Montreal and Harding Place. I completely understand your feelings of loss and how you will miss him on this earth, but I also can just see him enjoying visiting with my parents, Uncle Bud, and other saints who joyfully met him in Paradise! God be with you and comfort you. I love you.
