“ Shannon was a good neighbor and friend. I met him and Evelyn in 2014 after my family and I moved in across the street. We had lots of laughs together. Shannon had a great sense of humor. Sometimes a very dry sense of humor. I loved hearing his and Evelyn's stories. Shannon, you will be sorely missed. My condolences and prayers to Shannon's family and many other friends. The world just lost a little more light.

“ First met Shannon when our mothers worked together in the same medical office, he and Dusty being younger. We never hung out together because we lived in different towns, but we did reconnect over 25 years ago; he will truly be missed.
