

Shelly Ann Clubb

February 14, 1972 - January 13, 2018

Shelly Ann (Ingram) Clubb, age 45, of Conway, AR passed away at her home on January 13, 2018. She was born February 14, 1972 to Ricky Lynn Ingram and Judy Lyn (Reynolds) Ingram in Conway, Arkansas. Shelly graduated from Searcy High School in 1990 where she was a member of the band as an extraordinary French horn soloist. She was a licensed dental hygienist. Above all, Shelly was a devout Christian who knew, believed, and lived God's word. Her Holy Bible was never far from her side. Her heart of gold was open to all and she gave it willingly to all she knew, and was loved by many in return. Her family was dear to her, especially her two daughters, who were the light of her life. She was smart, generous with everything she had, resourceful, and filled with the light of love. That light was Shelly. She was a talented cook and dedicated homemaker, played the piano, enjoyed her pet puppies, and loved watching the Razorbacks. She could be anything from a mischievous tom-boy to a lady of elegance and pure class. She heard music in a special way and had insights of it that were truly an amazing grace.

She is survived by her husband, Clayton Clubb of Conway; two daughters, Madalyn Rose Gross, and Ashley Elizabeth (Libby) Gross, of Searcy; stepdaughter Sydney Clubb, and stepson Hayden Clubb, both of Beebe; father Ricky Ingram (Hettie) of Enola; mother Judy Henard (Mike) of Searcy; sister Shannon Donnow (Jeff) of Enola; sister Sandy Hollman (John) of Searcy; brother Mickey Henard (Alicia), of Searcy; grandmother Ava Nell Ingram, of Conway; nieces and nephews: Kylie and Kacie Bragg, of Enola;

Isaac and Abigail Hollman, of Searcy; Lynley and Kellan Henard, of Searcy. Visitation will be Wednesday, January 17 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Powell Funeral Home of Searcy. Funeral services will be Thursday, January 18 at 10 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will follow in Marcus Hill Cemetery in Enola.

“ Gail and I were deeply touched and saddened to hear of the loss of Shelly. Never is it easy to give up someone that you deeply love, but it is even more heartbreaking when they depart this life in such an untimely fashion.

From my own experience, too well do I understand and feel the pain that you are now experiencing and what heartbreak you are going through at this time. However, rejoice in knowing that you can and must lay the burden at the foot of the Cross and let our Loving Savior carry the load for you all.

"For the Yoke is heavy, but He shall make your burden light!"
Our Prayers are and will continue to be with you all.

“ I was in band with Shelly at Searcy High, and for a time I was also her math tutor at her request. She had a surprising influence on my life by helping me realize I might be able to teach for a living. I will always remember her kindness and her beautiful smile, even in later years when she scolded me in her role as dental hygienist. Prayers and much love to the Ingram, Clubb, and Gross families.
