“ Uncle Wayne was a loving and caring man. Every Saturday he'd call his sister Darlene (my mom) just to check up on her and make sure everything was OK. About three years ago mom and I went to Arkansas to be at the family reunion. We spent two weeks with Wayne and Shirley visiting family and old places mom and Wayne used to go. Those two weeks will have a lasting memory for me as that was the last time I was to see him. He loved and cared for his family more than anyone I know. He was the keeper of the family tree and was always excited when he found something new about the Bolding family. Just a week before he passed he sent me copies of pictures of the family back in the 1800's. He never stopped exploring his family roots. Wayne I'm going to miss you but your in heaven with Joanne and Marilyn. Also with all your other brothers, sisters, mom and dad. Your Northwest Oregon and Washington love you!

“ Wayne was an outstanding Christian. He invited my wife and I to their home for lunch the first Sunday we were at church in Judsonia. That was about 40 years ago.

“ I remember Saturday night card games with Red and Francine. All 7 of us kids playing all thru the house. Good times... I call him Uncle Sonny, but he is Mom's uncle. One of the nicest and best men I have ever known. Ken Wilson
