

Starr Haynes

July 10, 1947 - September 25, 2025

Starr Haynes, 78, of Bald Knob, Arkansas who passed away on September 25, 2025 at her home.

She was born July 10, 1947, the daughter of the late A.A. Underwood and Juanita Logan.

Starr was a devoted Christian woman who placed God first, followed by her love for family and friends. She was a faithful member of Temple Baptist Church, where she served in the Ladies Auxiliary, taught children in Sunday School, and was also an active member of the Eastern Star Chapter.

She is survived by her sons, Jerry Haynes of Pleasant Plains and Quin Haynes of Shelby, North Carolina, her daughters, Gaye Haynes of Pleasant Plains and Lanie Bunch of Searcy. She is also survived by six grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Gary E. Haynes.

Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home Bald Knob-Judsonia.

There will be no formal funeral service. The family deeply appreciates your support and prayers during this time. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital would be greatly appreciated.

“ Star was a few years older than I. We rode the school bus together. Every morning she would save me a seat,(this was a big deal to me I mean a big deal) she was in high school, I was in elementary. In the afternoon I saved her a seat. She graduated, married Gary (whom was like family) . When Gaye was born, I got off the bus one afternoon, and there they were. The three of them. She brought her baby for me to see her. Star was pregnant with her last child when I was pregnant with my first. Aunt Dee watched both of our babies at times. Star was always so pretty , was such a lovely inside and outside. She will be missed, but you will have all those wonderful memories to hang onto. Love to everyone of you
