“ Steve and his first wife, Mary, were good friends of ours when we were in the Navy stationed in Charleston, SC. We used to go to the beach, play cards and had a lot of fun. So sorry to hear of your loss. I had hoped some day we could have seen him again.

“ I could share volumes of stories and laughs in regard to my dear friend, but I will keep it short. We first met at a local car dealership 19 years ago, where he was a mentor to me, a struggling young car salesman. We worked together twice more at radio stations. He took me to my first Razorback football game and we shared a love of the St. Louis Cardinals. I loved talking radio, sports, Elvis and Neil Diamond with him. We did some great things in radio together and hopefully, helped a few other people along the way. I will never forget him. He is missed! My prayers go out for Marci, his sons and daughter as well as all of his friends here at COOL 104.
