“ My thoughts and prayers are with Steven's family during this very difficult time. Steven visited with me here at school many times and always talked about his family and his love for each of them. He was a good student, a great person and one that will be greatly missed.

“ To Steve's family. I wish to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. Steve was a good person and a great Soldier. We had many days and nights together as Soldiers in the field and I will never forget all the great times we shared. I will miss him and know that he is in a better place where he will reunite with all warriors that have gone before him.
