“ Vicky,
I saw the article in the paper and couldn't believe it. My heart sank for you. I'm sorry I wasn't in town for Steve's service. You and Steve were so kind to my mom, Willie Hendley. She's up north now, as you know, but I called her - she said her heart breaks for you and you will hear from her soon. God Bless you and all the family. Love,
Sylvia

“ So sad to hear of Steve's passing. My memories are of our much younger days when our kids were running around Dan River Church, singing in kid's choirs and just having fun. Travis loved going to AJ's house doing the things a city kid couldn't do. Steve always spent lots of time with them. To Vicki, Lois, and the kids, may God grant you strength for days ahead. May your memories in time bring a smile. A true loss for his family, co-workers and county.

“ My symphany goes out to all his family. I too lost my husband Mike Aug. 2012 at age 51 so I know how hard it is when life is cut so short. The best thing to pray to God for strength and keep the family strong. Take your time in making major decisions and just be totally supportive of your family. Everyone mourns different ways but support is a key essential to making it throught the hard time. You are in my prayers. Anglia "Angie" Conner-Davis Emmendorfer Class 1974. “ Dear Cassada Family,

I just wanted to express my sincere condolences. Steve used to do the gang prevention program in the schools, and he always did a wonderful job of connecting with the students,

Every time I saw him, Steve would always say "hi" and give me a hug. I don't believe that he ever met a stranger.

I know that Steve will be missed, and I know that he will always be remembered.
