“ Brent was a great brother in law for many years. A lot of fun as a classmate. A great lifelong friend. To know Brent was to love him and he could keep you rolling in laughter, if given the opportunity! He was a hard worker and has wore many hats over the years. I am grateful for the years that he was in our family. The very best of him was definitely his children. He was always staying at home and keeping them when they were just little tykes. Sister and I could tear out and go anywhere with him tending to those babies. Christmas' was special when we all got together again for his kids and grandson. He was in Brent's favorite word "Well", iykyk! Rest in peace...
