“ Memories of good times, lots of smiles and laughing....on Lone Pine Road. You will forever be in our hearts Steve. I cherish the mornings you would drop off a biscuit and sausage with a big old smile when I was on my way to work.... I never make chili without using your secret ingredients and remembering you teaching me how to make it with everything being added just at the right time....Much love to the family for the loss of this wonderful sweet soul! Love you Anita Jack!

“ Steve I've known you basically my entire life. You are family... even though family went different ways you was always family. You was such a kind gentle man. Haven't seen you a lot in recent years but when I did you was just like always..., kind and sweet as ever. You will be missed greatly. With much love Mary Little
