“ The memory that stands out the most in my mind is of the time I was visiting with my friend, Sis.Tims' daughter, Becky, for the summer back when we were teens. Becky and I were out by the pond of their house (getting us a suntan) needless to say we nearly turned red as a lobster. As I was in the shower afterward, I passed out from the heat of the burn in the shower. When I woke up there was Sis Tims scolding us and telling us we two girls knew better than to do what we did (she said it with a smile and concern) sweetest memories of her and my friend Becky. I loved her dearly.

That is one of my favorite memories too Becky. Mom and I shared that story and laughed many times. She always loved you.
