“ Terry was my friend from first grade through our Senior year. In grade school, fourth grade to be exact, one cold November afternoon headed toward the bus, he slung his coat at me and the button caught my eye, giving me my first black eye. In High School we spent many Friday and Saturday nights partying in the bean fields after harvest time. Many of us rode in the back of his pick up singing Joy to the World by Three Dog Night. Oh those were good days. My heart goes out to Debbie and all his loved ones and the friends he has had since we were friends long ago. Of course, I will always consider him a friend of my youth, my favorite kind. God Speed, Terry. Kathy (Dunn) Gunderson.
