Sprout was such a wonderful man. When my mother got sick, Sprout was so good to come and see her at Beebe Retirement Center and I so greatly appreciated him taking the time out of his day to just stop and say hi. Thank you for being so kind to my mother (Carolyn Reames)

“ *Love you Uncle Sprout.
Thank you for teaching me how to ride the ponies in your pasture on Holmes Rd and the big horses at Romance.
I cherish the memories of our family holidays so full of love and fun.
Rest In Peace Uncle Sprout and give Mother a big hug and kiss from me.

“ Sprout was one of those people you just instantly like, he was kind and thoughtful, once his friend, always his friend. He was never in such a hurry he couldn't stop to say hello and visit awhile, he's been a family friend about Sixty years. I loved his smile and seeing him laugh, I'll miss my friend Sprout Coleman
