“ I remember this year it was Thursday she showed up to work earlier than normal ( I was leaving early that day) I asked her what she was there so early she said these kids still get Easter baskets! 25 - 30yrs old they still expect to get an Easter basket! I loved that she always gave the best down right honest advice, she was a class clown during our excel class her and Kim wood, they always have fun. She was an amazing person glad to have called her a friend really sorry Anthony and your entire family for your loss, I am really sorry, sending many prayers your way. Work won't be the same without her. I would always go out of my way to make sure I seen her before I left work! Love that woman!
