“ I met Tucker a few years ago and we struck up an immediate friendship. He became a great friend and a true mentor. He was a man who cared deeply for his family, his friends and his country.

I had the opportunity to spend a lot of time with Tucker talking on his back porch and learned what a truly remarkable man he was. Tucker truly cared about people and many times I witnessed him providing a helping hand to those in need, often doing it anonymously. He was always humble about serving others and did it because it was the right thing to do. Tucker was very proud of his family and told me countless stories about his nieces and nephews. I hope you all know how special you were to him.

Porter, he was so grateful for all your help, support and love. Thanks for taking such good care of your brother and my friend. My thoughts are with you and the family. Be proud of the terrific legacy this great man has left behind.

Tucker, I miss you, my friend. Semper Fidelis.

“ Tucker meant a lot to me. My friend, my roommate, my fellow jaycee. I treasure every one of the thousands of hours we spent over the years eating, drinking, travelling, laughing, arguing and plotting. My first contact with a computer was on his old mac classic. I taught myself how to program on that thing and now I make a living at it. Thanks for everything Tucker. I'll try to pay it forward like you always did.
