

Tyne Allen Noggle

June 11, 1991 - June 15, 2020

Tyne Allen Noggle, 29, of Livingston, Texas, formerly of Rose Bud, passed away in Texas. He was born June 11, 1991 in Little Rock to Jimmy Dale and Angela Renee (Ullrich) Noggle. Tyne was a one of a kind individual. He worked as a welders helper on the pipeline and had attended college to major in Medieval History. You never knew what his next adventure would be. Some described him as a hipster because he was always up for beer tasting at the newest brewery or down to catch the newest Marvel movie. Tyne might be reading Harry Potter one day and then the next the latest super hero comic. He loved life and enjoyed it to the fullest as a free spirit, a movie buff and hard core video gamer.

He leaves behind his parents, Jimmy and Angela of Rose Bud; siblings, Gabrielle Noggle "Gabby" and Matthew Noggle "Matt"; grandparents, John Ullrich of Mt. Vernon and Charles and Edna Jane Bacus of Little Rock; great-grandparents, Anthony Ullrich of Texas and Gerald Dean Johnson of Hot Springs; as well as a "a whole slew" of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He is preceded in death by his grandma, Phyllis Ullrich of Mt. Vernon, great-grandma, Anna Ullrich of Texas, granny and papa, Jean and Wendell Noggle of Rose Bud and great grandpa, Claude Lee Johnson of Russellville.

Funeral Service will be Saturday, June 20, 2020 at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel in Searcy at 5:00 P.M. Interment will follow at St. Marys nondenominational Cemetery in Rose Bud.

“ The last time I had the pleasure of spending time with you; you called me out of the blue and asked me to come hang out. I'll never forget how excited I was to see you again for the entire four hour drive to Fayetteville. Half way through my trip to you a bad lightning storm had come through. It had gotten dark. So dark and hard to see in the rain in fact I had taken a wrong exit and ended up driving down the wrong side of the highway for sometime. It wasn't until the third pair of headlights before I realized I needed to turn around. Totally work it. Despite the dangerous and long drive I cherished every moment we spent together once I arrived. We Tyne was in the room with you; You knew you were going to laugh until your sides hurt. I mean really hurt. That side splitting full belly laugh. He just knew how to get that kind of laugh out of people. I've longed to spend time with you again since graduation and since that night. We stayed up all night talking and laughing until we had no choice but to finally go to sleep. Until our entire bodies just gave out from laughing so hard. Leaving that morning felt too soon. Rest in peace friend. You always looked up to super heroes and was an avid reader of comic books. I just want you to know you were without a doubt one of my heroes. It seems now you have finally found immortality. Until we meet again brother.
