“ I only met my sweet sister for the first time less than a month before she passed. We only spent a day together. However, I felt like we had been sisters forever. Everything happens for a reason and now I know what part of that reason was that urged me to search for the birth family I knew existed. I will hold dear to my heart those few precious hours we had together. I thank God for allowing me to finally fill the void in my heart. Louise brought our family together and made us whole.

“ Grandma,

I love you so much and I miss you greatly. I have so many memories of times spent with you and that will help me get through until the day I meet you in heaven. I know you are looking down on me and you will always be with me but call me selfish I would give anything to hug you one more time and tell you I love you one more time. I'm glad you are not in pain anymore. Please give great grandma a hug and kiss for me until the day I can do it. I love you grandma with all my heart. Don't worry about grandpa we will all take good care of him for you.

Love Always & Forever,

Terri Anne
