

Verline Hadley

September 21, 1942 - June 29, 2024

Mrs. Verline Hadley was born to the late Roosevelt and Hilda Mae Combs on September 21, 1942, in Indianola, Mississippi. She was a devoted wife to Roosevelt Hadley until his call home to be with the Lord on March 24, 2013. Her time on this side of Heaven consisted of being a loving wife and mother, family member, and providing a home to anyone in need when she could. She worked in the Home Health profession for many years before retiring in 2021. She joined Arnold Tabernacle C.M.E Church after marrying Mr. Hadley and later joined United Ministries, pastored by Latonya Stewart, where she rededicated her life to Jesus Christ.

Verline departed this life on June 29, 2024. Besides caring for others, she loved to sing and cook. One of her favorite songs was “Walk with Me, Lord,” which she often sang or hummed while working around the house. Family and friends were almost guaranteed to have some of the best southern cooking in town whenever they would stop by for a visit.
