“ When she came into the life of five new teenage nieces she showed them how to put on makeup. She told them how beautiful we were. She showed us how to laugh and have fun. She enriched all of our lives for the better. I can see her in heaven chasing the love of her life again. I am so glad God chose her and the ones they left behind to be in the Skelton family. We would not be the same without her being a part of the clan.

Aunt Vickie was so much more than just an Aunt. She was like a second mom to me and she loved me as her own.

I've never known a more forgiving, loving and caring person in my life. She believed in second chances and always gave people the benefit of the doubt. Her outlook on life was always positive. She could always take a bad situation and find the good that God Would bring from it. Just 3 weeks ago she told me she did not want anyone at her funeral being sad. She wanted everyone to rejoice because she was going to her heavenly home and that is something to rejoice about, not be sad about.

My heart breaks that I can not be there for her heavenly send off but I also know she understands. She will forever live on in the hearts of her family and as long as we continue to speak her name, she will always be remembered and cherished. Aunt Vickie, you are so loved by my children and grandchildren. We will keep your memories alive forever. Until we meet again, we will hold you in our heart! Hug my granny for me 🦋
