“ *Bill & virginia, I was very embarrassed when mom went to the hospital and I did not know her name. After calling her mom for so long. I don;t feel bad about it now. I did not get the opportunity to enjoy her as long as you, but the short time i did have with her will always be in my heart. She will be missed, but the memories will live forever in our minds and heart.
May God be with you and your family , mom is at home now,this is what she wanted. She is watching us now.
We have another GUARDIAN ANGEL over us.*
