“ I was so saddened to learn of Mr. Hartsfield's death. I so appreciated his service to the ASU Board of Trustees, and especially for being the rock we needed during a very tumultuous time years ago. I am so thankful that he was there for us and for his unwavering support.

“ Suzy and family:
Sharon and I send our deepest smypathies. Wayne was in addition to being a great man and a great civic leader, a great friend and confidant to me. I will miss our conversations. Please note our thoughts and prayers were with you during the service. We had a previously scheduled event that took us out of town on Saturday and Sunday but our hearts were with you. We love you all.

“ What a privilege it was to know Wayne. My mother, Bernice Horn, never worried about her banking matters because she always felt Wayne was her "personal banker". She and my dad thought the world of Wayne, Susie and your family. How nice it is for you to know that Wayne truly made a difference during his time on Earth. He will be remembered as a man of integrity, compassion and service to his community and his state. He will be missed and Searcy won't be the same without him. May the love of friends comfort you. May the love of God give you peace.
