“Daddy, I will miss you so much and wanted so badly to have you up and about again, we all did.

I look around at your family and I see glimpses of you, your smile, your laugh, your sense of humor, your good looks, even your ears. Seriously, I can see you in us and I know you would be so proud of the women and men your children have become.

Your flowers and service were beautiful. Elvis sang and the family smiled and sang softly along, you would have been grinning ear to ear seeing us all in one place hanging onto to each other.

I know you and I will have many of our talks as the days progress, I may get even get a few more words in but, I know if I slow down I will hear you still being my daddy and helping me along the way.

I love you daddy, I never minded being the runt because you always made me feel special. I am and will always be my daddys little girl.

All my love daddy-Julia

“ I still miss you daddy, not a day passes that you do not cross my mind and wonder what if.....

I try harder to take each day and live it to its fullest knowing you missed a chance at many of your days, too too many.

I comfort myself thinking you are up in Heaven looking down at me and helping me take the right steps, and probably threatening to spank my butt when I am goofing up.....thats a daddies job, I know this now.

Say hello to God for me and be good up there!

I love you so much, Julia

“ Words seems to fail me when I try to explain how much Uncle Willard will be missed. He loved to talk about God. He loved his church family. He often talked about how much all his family meant to him. I pray for all the family today that as time goes on we take a moment to make a call, share a hug, give a word of encouragement or just be there for each other. God bless and take care we love you all. Let us all meet on the other side with Jesus.

“ I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their prayers, love and friendship during this time. My father was in no way a perfect man, but then again, who of us are? He was a man however that we all learned from and have many memories of. He made an impression on many people's lives and can never be forgotten. As we start to re-acclimate ourselves back to our individual worlds this week, we find there is hole that seems so dark and dreary. It is filled with "what if", "why" and "if I would have just". We must remember that our goal here on earth is to one day be reunited with our Heavenly Father, and everything happens according to His plan and purpose. Daddy met this goal! For those of us left behind, let us remember the good times, the laughter and love. Cherish our family and friends. And most of all love unconditionally, without consequence or regrets. Daddy would definitely have been honored to know of the positive impact he made on the many lives he touched, and the fond memories he left behind. I love you daddy-

“ When we received the news of our dear brother in the Lord passing our thoughts immediately went to the times he was part of our flock. Willard will always have a special place in our hearts when he was with us he attend our bible school and he was a very good student. I recall the day he graduate from school the BIG smile he had on his face and the glow on his face. His faithfulness to the Lord and to the church was miss when he decided to leave and retire (at least that what he said but I don't think so). He had such a love for God and a gentleman and had a hungry for the knowledge and the word of God. Our condolences to all the family, friends and know this your dad, grandfather, brother, uncle or friend whatever he meant to you he was truly loved by the AGAPE FAITH FELLOWSHIP family. Final words be encourage because he is in His Lord and Savior arms waiting for all of us to join him. Much love Pastor Joseph & Eva Rodriguez

“ I knew Willard when he was in Michigan. He attended our deer camp for several years and was the camp cook and his cooking was a blessing to us all! (He was the cook by choice because he was the best cook in attendance! Willard always had an entertaining story to tell and was the life of the camp. I also made many trips to the Tippy dam in Manistee where he and I had many good memories of fishing for salmon together. I always enjoyed doing things with Willard and he was a very good listener who was always there! He also would give the shirt off of his back to anyone in need. My condolences to all of the Sterling family.

“ My sincerest condolences to all of the Sterling family and to my husband, Willards' oldest child, Harold Wayne. I know that this news broke his heart. I hope and pray that God will comfort my husband and his sister Julia, and all the other relatives grieving at this time. I wanted to be there to support my husbands' family, but unfortunately was unable to leave our home and kids at this time. I met Willard only one time while he visited our home one week in a summer a few years ago. I found him to be kind and generous and completely affable. I will miss the opportunity to get to know him better, and for our son Dakota to bond with his grandfather. His passing is very sad and painful for us all. God bless!!

“ A friend in need is a friend indeed. Willard has always been a helping hand to me over the fifteen years I have known him. He has been a very generous person to all he came in contact with. He attended and graduated from Agape Faith Bible Training Center and volunteered his services on the soundboard to record the classes for another three years. Upon his retirement and move to Arkansas, he purchases a new mixer for the recording department, which we still use today. Thanks for being a friend, Willard O Willard. I can still see your smile and the twinkle in your eyes. I will see you again in Heaven.
