

William Henry Collison

February 26, 1923 - June 29, 2016

William Henry Collison, 93, of Bald Knob died at his home on Wednesday, June 29, 2016. He was born February 26, 1923 in Bald Knob a son of the late Everett and Elsie (Osmon) Collison. Henry operated the Collison Welding Shop for many years and was well known for his fabricating and repair skills. In earlier years, he enjoyed hunting and fishing and always maintained his love for the outdoors and gardening. His love and knowledge of baseball led him to coach in the Little League Baseball Program for a number of years where he worked hard to instill good sportsmanship in many young lives. A civic minded man, Henry served for many years as the Bald Knob Fire Chief and also served as City Inspector. Henry was a fixture at the Market Café where he enjoyed the company of his many friends over a cup of coffee and a good story. He was a member of the Masonic lodge and a long-time member of the First United Methodist Church.

He is survived by his daughter, Tina Sue Perkins (Tom) of Bald Knob; grandsons, Jon Goad (Ashley) of Lake City and Jason Goad (Andrea) of Harrisburg; great-grandchildren, Jada, Skylar, Jack and Jud; brother, Clarence Collison and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Verdeal Collison; brothers, Junior Collison and Ray Collison; sister, Irene Rash and a grandson, William Goad. Visitation will be Friday from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Funeral services will be held Saturday, July 2, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. at the Powell Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Derek Collins, Jason Goad and Jon Goad officiating. Henry will be escorted by the Bald Knob Fire Department to Shady Grove Cemetery for burial. Arrangements are entrusted to Powell Funeral Home, Bald Knob – Judsonia. www.powellfuneralhome.net.

“ Henry was a great guy that was respected by all that knew him. I've known him my entire life from his welding shop doing repairs and making parts for the sawmill I grew up on to Henry on the sidelines of our football games carrying the yard sticks. I talked to Henry just a few days ago in the Market and he was the same Henry every time I saw him. Always smiling and happy to see you. He will be missed by all that knew him. My family sends thoughts and prayers to Mr Collisons family.

“ Billy and I are so sad to hear of Mr. Henry's passing. We loved him very much. He was a wonderful example of a sweet, Christian man and our church will truly be a little less bright without his precious light shining every Sunday! We are out of town this week and so very sorry that we will miss his service. Prayers for you all.
