“ I call my grandchildren The Fearsome Foursome. The Lindsey Cousins are the Fearsome Eight-some. Billy is no longer with us, but will forever be one of the Fearsome Eight-some. I haven't seen my Arkansas family in 30 years, but the priceless memories feel like yesterday. I learned of his passing while driving to Rhode Island to see two of my Fearsome Foursome. Thank you, Gayle for the pictures and video you posted. They prompted tears of sadness about the loss of Billy and tears of gratitude for the special memories of growing up with all my Lindsey cousins. The military tribute was especially moving. God Bless Aunt Ima Jean, Vicki, Johnny and Ann and all who love Billy.

“ I remember all of the good times we spent together at Grandma and Grandpa's house at Aunt Ima Jean and Uncle Hoyle's farm in Gregory. Billy and Walter Dean used to get into some good ruckuses, but were always friends. Billy had a wonderful, full-of-life spirit, and was always fun to be around. I will miss him, as will all of his friends and family. But I know he was a Christian, and a good soldier, and will be with his fellow veterans, his Daddy, and Grandparents, in the arms of our Savior.

“ Oh the wonderful memories of us cousins in Arkansas...always in and out of Uncle Hoyle and Ima Jeans house with the kids, Billy, Vickie, Johnny and Ann...The boys were always laughing and cutting up...Billy reminded me so much of Ernest Coles with his sly smile....I loved being around them all. .He loved the country life and had a wonderful life with lots of friendships and family, He did his part by serving his country. He was a good man and we miss him already. My prayers will be with the family on Friday.....

“ Billy used to make me laugh when I was a kid. He had a zest for life and loved to duck hunt, fish and play around on the farm with his younger cousins. I used to love spending time with him when I stayed overnight at the “Gregory Hotel” as I called it and I remember one winter, his sister Ann and I wanted to do something fun inside because it was so cold outside, so he got us a big cardboard box and we slid down the stairs a hundred times! He laughed when we wiped out and we laughed back. I love you cousin Billy and will miss you terribly. Thank you for your service and say high to Uncle Hoyle for me. I’m sure the angels are holding you close “ Cousin Billy always called me flip e leu all the time, his version of my name Phillip. So glad he got to come to "yankee country" here in South Dakota a couple years ago for pheasant hunting, loved seeing him and hunting birds together. Billy served proudly in the US. Army and is my fellow veteran, thank you Billy for your service, friendship, and one hell of a great relative I enjoyed growing up with you and your legacy will live on from your wonderful children and many grandchildren. Know you are in a better place now, but will miss you dearly. Cousin Phil Lindsey.
