“ I am William's oldest daughter, i didnt know you could do this on this site. Thanks Powell funeral home i like the way this is set up. I could tell you a million stories about my dad and the crazy things he did Just as everyone that ever Met him could, he was something else, but i want to tell everyone how he was the last year or two he was here.
For 28 years of my life i could honestly say i never saw him sober but for over a year he cleaned himself up and tried to do as good as he knew how to do. I never had the chance to tell him i was really proud of him for All he had done and had tried to do to be a better person but i Hope he knows i was proud of how he changed and i also thank larry landis for being a positive influence in his life and helped him want to change.
Im sorry we didnt do more and things got so hard for you, dad. I do understand, but we would have always been here when you needed us. I love you.
Love your daughter,
Elaine
