Wilma Robinson Adams December 22, 1930 - February 9, 2025

Wilma Robinson Adams, 94, of Searcy, Arkansas departed this life on February 9th, 2025 at her home in Harding Place. She was born on December 22, 1930 in Washington D.C. to the late Ernest and Inez Robinson. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Edward Adin Adams in 2001. Wilma is survived by her sister, Doris Daniel; her children Ronda Adams, Bryan and his wife April Adams, and Paul and his wife Vilma Adams; her granddaughters Amber and her husband Jake Acree, Hannah Adams, and Caitlyn Adams; and her great-granddaughter Bella Rose Acree. Wilma was proud of her Home Economic studies at David Lipscomb College of which she applied as a mother, church member, and with many secretarial positions held over the years. Her homes included those lived in Washington D.C.; Toledo, Ohio; Wheeling, WVA; Rochester, NY; Houston, Texas; and Searcy, AR. Her many talents included: cooking and entertaining; sewing; gardening and floral arranging; cross stitch; needle point; and teaching Sunday school and ladies Bible classes. Anyone who met Wilma would quickly recognize her as a woman of personal drive, enthusiasm, and encouragement. She was a woman of continuous prayer and shared the love of the Lord with all around her. It is not possible to count the number of people who were entertained and fed in her home or were brought a meal when ill or grieving. As a long time garden club member, Wilma would organize trips to a variety of botanical gardens or would host instructional parties to advance the flora arrangement skills of the members. The family welcomes you to share your fond memories of Wilma at the website below. The family will receive friends on Saturday, March 1, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. at the Powell Funeral Home in Searcy, Arkansas. “ I always loved seeing Aunt Wilma who was incredibly full of life and of animated stories. I remember her tales of trips to Hawaii and a child and thought that it sounds like the most magical place. Her energy and passion to continue to give back to her community and her church, even into her 80s and 90s is such an inspiration. You will be missed. Shelby Adams Abeyta

“ Bryan & April, Paul & Vilma, and Family, I only had the pleasure of spending the evening with your mom the night before Ambers & Jakes wedding. Sally & I were honored with her staying at our house! We thoroughly enjoyed listening to her tell us stories about her life and her jobs and her relationships she had with her grandchildren! She had the sweetest personality and we were amazed at her stories! I am grateful for the short time we had together. She was fun, entertaining, smart and giving. She gave me a book of hers that was very near and dear to her. i believe she loved to talk to God in prayer and she gave me a book explaining a unique way to pray. I loved her heart for God! I know she is gone to receive her reward! Love, Denise Greene

“ Even though Wilma didn’t move to Searcy until her later years, she hit the ground running, and at 83ish she immediately volunteered to get involved in the city-wide VBS at the College church! She was fun to be around and I have many memories of her... taking her to the ER occasionally and sitting with her for various medical issues, updating her with info posted by her family on Facebook and showing her pictures, but one fond memory is the Ladies holiday gift exchange where she beat me out for a beautiful silver snowflake ornament! Later, at church, she gifted me with that ornament which I still love and display! She was lots of fun and will be missed!

“ I first met Wilma at Monday night for the Master at West Side Church of Christ in Searcy where she was an active member. Wilma never met a stranger. The ladies at West Side were making sleep mats out of plastic bags to send abroad. She took this project to Harding Place where many ladies became involved. She was a seamstress all her life, and made hundreds of ‘pillow case’ dresses to send to Africa. She was also involved with World Bible School. I was very blessed to have picked her up every Monday night, and countless other outings. I loved hearing every story about her life. She was so ready to go be with her Savior. She will be greatly missed.

“ The skills she taught me,her daughter, in cooking and sewing have benefited me throughout my life. I gratefully appreciate them. My friends and family have benefited from the legacy she passed on to me and I hope my neices will pass on to their families. She was never one to miss a party and she knew how to set a Better Homes and Garden atmosphere. Her knowledge of horticulture and gardening passed down from her father will continue through the family line. Her wide circle of friends will deeply miss her charm and wit. In addition to the many areas of the country listed she also lived in Springfield,IL, Baltimore, MD, Norcross, GA.
