“ Dear Leah:I was very saddened to read about Lavon's passing in the Harding spring publication recently. He was very special to me. As my boss back in the early 1970's at WJXT in Jacksonville, FL, he introduced me to Christ and planted the seed. Others watered the seed (namely Roger Lowry) and I became a Christian in 1973. I look forward to seeing him in Heaven some day. May God bless you in your loss.Love Julius

“ Dear Rhea and family,

I am so sorry to hear of Lavon's passing! I don't know if you remember the last time I saw the both of you, but, it was in Judsonia, in the spring of 1999. Myself and another lady from our congregation were in a burgundy church van full of teenagers that said "Woodstock Church of Christ". Our van had died. Lavon tried to 'jump' us without success. He then went and BOUGHT a heavier set of jumper cables, and of course wouldn't let us pay him for them.

Our love and prayers will continue to go with you!

*Love,
Linda*

“ Leah and girls, we were so surprised and stunned to learn of Lavon's death. He was so self-confident and physically strong (we remember the tractor incident)...I always thought of him as a survivor man! Our hearts and prayers go out to each of you. We watched all five of you girls grow up, and we always knew that you were loved by your parents even though you spent a lot of time in the squash patch! I'm very thankful for the years Lavon and I spent together as faculty colleagues at HU in the School of Business. May the Lord bless each of you with endearing and wonderful memories.
