“ To the Guthrie Family: May God bless you during these difficult days. I remember your parents from singing days. Your mother has become a beautiful lady. My grandfather Alvie Baughn worked with your dad and your Uncle Howard Overstreet. Your dad was responsible in getting us involved in the convention singings and your mom was supporting him by being there. I say thank you for sharing your parents. That has developed my love for Gospel music and there were others involved that I knew but did not no they were involved until I went to a singing. Again thanks for my memories. I think often about the stories if have heard Papa talk about your dad and your uncle. May God Bless you during this difficult days.

“ To all of the Guthrie Family: We are very sorry to learn about Aunt Zelda, but we know that she is in Heaven with Uncle Buster right now.
Linda, Ruth, and Jeanette: I personally was raised up with Linda & Ruth and when we would come to Grandma & Grandpa Guthrie; it seemed that we would always see the two of you. I didn't know Jeanette that well because she was a lot younger than myself. I have always admired Uncle Buster and Aunt Zelda because you all had a perfect family and that was the way they raised you. I know they will be missed by you three and all of the rest of the family, but you understand where they are right now and that is good.
